

NEW HOSPITAL DEVELOPMENT IN BEXHILL

Development Overview – CGI by Gilling Dodd Architects

Update 2

Kier Construction, in partnership with the local NHS, is building a 54-bed mental health hospital at Mount View Street, Bexhill-on-Sea, to replace out-dated inpatient services in Eastbourne.

This is the second update on progress of the scheme.

Detailed design and preparation of contract works is in progress currently off site. On site Archaeological investigations have been commissioned to mitigate risk of finding significant historical features or items under the development. This is done under the supervision of the county Archaeologist, by a specialist contractor.

Archaeological Works

The currently planned works will run from the 23rd of January to the 10th of Feb. This may extend if we find something.

W/C 23rd Jan

- Erect a heras fence enclosure to the site perimeter.
- Clear hedgerow and coppice adjacent to bell mouth entrance.
- Perimeter survey.

W/C 30th Jan

- Excavate a network of 2 metre wide trenches down to around 600mm deep. Reviewing the content of the excavated layers as they proceed.

W/C 6th Feb

- Backfill and demobilise – if nothing is uncovered.

If you want to find out more about the development then please check out our website (details opposite).
